Preschool Director

Wycliffe Christian School

Warrimoo, NSW

Full time position | Start Term 1, 2027

About Wycliffe Christian School

Wycliffe Preschool is part of Wycliffe Christian School. The preschool is a twenty-place service primarily for four-year-old children in the year before formal schooling. As vacancies permit the preschool also offers places for three-year-old children.

The vision of the preschool is to support parents in enabling their children to see the wonder of God's creation and to consider His world through the lens of a distinctly Christian biblical worldview.

We are looking for committed Christians of an evangelical persuasion who are active in their local church to join our staff team.

Applications are invited for the Preschool Director at Wycliffe Christian School, commencing in January 2027.

The Director has the responsibility of leading the preschool educators and the preschool community of families within the context of the wider school community.

Detailed information about this role and its responsibilities can be found here.
